NICHOLAS COUNTY HIGH SCHOOL
Summersville West Virginia

High School Days are Full of Action

Heave Ho my lads and pry open the lid of this, our treasure laden chest, the 1959 Nichlosean.

Layer by layer we uncover in this chest the never, never-to-be-forgotten wealth of memorable achievements and exploitations of our four years of pillage, plundering, and booty taking.

As each layer of golden treasure is displayed we pause or linger long enough for you to recall with us the high spirit of adventure, and the glorious wonder of our performances and acquirements.

From our great ship, NCHS, teeming with treasures we have gathered much for our lockers; an enormous wealth of knowledge, of experiences, and of friendships that we herewith unfold for you.

We halt to pay homage to our Pirate Chief, our captains, their crew and members, our fellow pirates, and our fellow contenders.

We let you share in the glory and beauty of our clubs, our teamwork, our pageants of achievements, and our undertakings beyond the call of duty.

We pause too, to appreciate the holders-of-the-purse strings, our advertisers.

Packed Assemblies, Activities - Learning

Service is our most extensive extra-curricular activity. Before school, after school, between classes—our students can always be found serving their school. As clubs, as groups, as individuals, we respond spontaneously to challenging needs.

Caught by the cameraman are the majorettes doing pyramids on the campus at West Virginia State College, thus furnishing wholesome advertising for the school. They are—on the ground: Becky Walker and Nancy Rose. Kneeling: Priscilla Tinnil and Ramona Frame. Standing: Shirley Wagner, Carol Frame, and Paula Taylor.

Life was both exciting and exasperating during our club initiations, especially when we dressed up in our Sunday best and were off for the mad dash.

G.A.A. girls pictured in a "gab session" are—standing: Mary Sue Ramsey and Judith Ramsey; seated: Louella Rutherford, Shirley Lilly, and Helen Tyree.

Exciting! Yes, helping with homecoming in any way is exciting whether it be decorating the float or carrying signs as Priscilla Rhomiller, Reva McMillion, Barbara Hicks, Don Brewer, Howard Blankenship, and Lula Wiblin are doing.

Each of these—homecoming and initiations—tied us closer to our school and all too soon it was over and—then the big night—Graduation.

We Seniors, the class of Pirates brave
In black and white many treasures have saved.

Very few people would like school if it were only a place to learn, to study, and to take tests. Fortunately our school isn't like that. There is a lighter side, the social side of school when everyone has a good time.

Throughout the year there's always something going on, whether it's a dance, assembly, or a football game—characteristic of the football season Coach Perkins and some of the B team are seen in the exciting moment of moments—the team scores on the last play to beat Webster Springs.

Everyone looks forward to the junior class play presented in November of every year. This year's play cast include M. Trimble, J. Frazer, N. Huffman, T. Pugh, B. Frame, B. Rader, L. McDowell, L. Beale, D. Dietz, S. Wagner, G. Sparks, B. Bennett, J. Cox.

Applying make-up to Bobby Frame and Geraldine Sparks are Sue Mason, Mrs. Betty McMillion, Ann Chapman, and Ed-die McMillion for the "big" play.

Yes, we have our social side of school which enables us to learn about the cultured side of life.

We've snatched precious gems from Freshman days forward
Our ship, it is loaded fore, top, aft, and boward.

Every student in our school has responsibilities. Some are officers of clubs, others are club members. Even if a student isn't a member of a club he still has responsibilities to his fellow students and teachers.

Having the responsibility of keeping track of band merits and demerits, are these band council students as they have a moment of light banter with their band director, Charles Nicosia. They are C. Frame, L. McDowell, B. Trent, Mr. Nicosia, D. Dietz, E. McMillion, and E. Deal.

Having purchased a new record player these G.A.A. officers decided to try it out with S. Mason on her knees to do the "honors." Seen standing are M. Summers, R. Grogg, V. Grimes, M. Champe, Mrs. Marguerite Halstead, J. Hinkle, and R. Wiblin.

Showing that they can follow the rules, these future N-Clubbers dress in the latest style—sacks—during initiation: F. Foster, R. Miles, R. Harlow, R. McClung, J. Thompson, B. Houghton, W. Fredersdorff.

For soon, too soon, this ship we must abandon
To live a life we've had no hand in.

School wasn't all play; we took the work with the pleasure. Everything we did was worthwhile in some way, even if it was just to teach us a lesson. We learned obedience—self discipline—courtesy—and willingness to help others. Yes, we learned many things in our four years at Nicholas County High.

Magazine folders in hand going from door to door these students earned the honor of being the "top five" in the magazine campaign for new bleachers: Dianne Stevens, Jack Chapman, Tiny Cogar, Jean Legg, and Eddie McMillion.

"The Darkest Hour" presented by the Thespians starred Eddie McMillion with Jane Hinkle, Elsie Deal, Raymond McCutcheon, and Ricky Jones. The play was taken to Montgomery to the district contest which includes schools of Fayette, Nicholas, Raleigh, and Webster Counties.

This four-year trip never fitted one better
For we have learned much from experience and letter.

School life is filled with so many desirable activities that everyone wants to be in the pink of condition to enjoy best the activities offered at our school.

Learning to be good homemakers these girls, Rita Mullens, Ruby Armentrout, and Mary Jane Painter practice the art of cooking.

Various expressions are noted on the faces of these band members and bus drivers as they watch a "big time" football game at W. V. U.

Providing musical enjoyment are the dance band members Sharon Piper, Mary Ann Summers, Kelly Lett, Lynda Beale, Carolyn Wilde, Elsie Deal, Vanra Grimes, James P'Simer, Eddie McMillion, Teresa Pugh, Donald Dietz, Bette Trent, Roy Gene Stout, Katherine Johnson, and Gary Wilson.

It is no fun to wander listlessly through school, not taking any part in any activity but there's something for everyone at NCHS whether it be sports—drama—music or club participation; all of these help to round out an individual's life.

We sail a ship, there's no one can stop her to tackle our jobs for weal or for woe

As we look back to the evenings we spent learning the script for a play or some other assembly we remember the fun filled events also.

Winners of the volleyball tournament held during many noon hours were the girls of Bus 8 whose members were M. Blankenship, C. Thomas, S. Neil; standing: E. Keener, J. Hughes, C. Drennen, R. Blankenship, Y. Willis, and L. Thomas.

Winning the boys' tournament were the town boys with K. Shalap, E. Withrow, B. Young, E. Jackson; standing: B. McIntire, K. Brown, W. Rogers, T. Fyock, N. Nichols, and V. Summers doing the playing.

"Beautifying the football field" is the goal of these Vo-Ag boys and sponsor as they prepare to fertilize the field with Campbell Tractor and Equipment Company furnishing the equipment. The boys are H. Sebert, F. Price, K. Stover, C. Cook, sponsor; D. Cook, H. Martin, K. Beaver, D. Bays, C. Hypes, R. Taylor, D. Roberts, and R. Taylor, driver M. Hanna.

"To usefulness, to greatness, to honor, to fame!
AHOY! We go."

By choosing organizations in which we are interested and by taking an active part in their activities, we have learned that high school is more than just books. Through our efforts in these extras, we have cultivated a deeper appreciation for the better things in life.

We Keep You Well Informed On News

Journalism I students learn the "know-how" of putting the paper together. Top: Bobbie Vass, Paula Ward, John Murphy, Gloria Hughes, Linda Biernz. Bottom: Nancy Brown, Rava McMillion, Heston Groves, Marie Walker, Herbert Hughes, Donna Hamilton, Loretta McClung.

"Work, work, work!" A lot of good, hard work is required to put that school paper together each month. Ads have to be sold to help finance the paper. This is primarily the job of the Journalism I students. "What good would a bunch of ads be without news to back them up?" This is the job of Journalism I and II. Then after the news and ads are gathered, someone has to put them together and that's where Journalism II students really work.

However, no job could be well done without the help of a supervisor. Here, journalists work under the direction of Mrs. Kathryn Drennen. Mrs. Drennen is also in charge of the sale of candy, which helps finance the school paper. Journalism I pupils are frequently seen selling candy in Room 3 at noon hours.

Nothing is expertly done without a lot of experienced help behind it. Journalism II students are the mainstay of the paper and annual.

Snooping and scouting around for interesting news is part of any reporter's life. That's a part of some of the fine experience journalism students get.

Seniors Work To Make A Better Annual

The 1959 Nichlosean was made possible by the Senior Class with the help of Mrs. Kathryn Drennen, Mrs. Betty McMillon, and Mrs. Esther Golden.

The staff was divided into two groups. The layout staff planned the annual, did all writeups, picture identifications, the cutting and pasting of all pictures, and the selection of the cover.

The advertising staff was responsible for the money: in the sale of advertising, the solicitation of supporters, these students traveled to many business establishments and cities for ads.

All drawings were done by James Rogers.

The one objective was to make this the best annual yet.

Various Projects Were Carried Out

"Let's relax with a coke" seems to be the attitude of these National Honor Society members. Donna Huffman and Violet Sparks are paying their money to Ann Chapman, Elsie Deal, Jane Hinkle, Dyer Herold, Eugene Jackson.

Membership being based upon character, scholarship, leadership, and service; admittance to the Nicholas County Chapter of the National Honor Society is the highest honor a student can receive during his high school career. The emblems of this society are the keystone and the torch. Symbolizing the ideals of the society, the keystone bears at its base the letters C, S, L, and S which stand for the four cardinal principles. The flaming torch symbolizes the club's purpose—to follow the light of truth.

During the first semester of each year, five per cent of the senior class is selected to become members and during the second semester ten per cent of the junior class is tapped for membership. In order to be considered for membership students must have at least a "B" average and must have spent at least one year in this school.

As defined in the constitution, "The purpose of this society is to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote leadership, and to develop character in the students of America's secondary schools."

In making the message of the Torch clearer, the colors of this society are gold, symbolic of the flame of ambition and blue, which tells us to be true to everyone and everything.

"Truth is Right," is the motto and encourages members to think clearly, carefully, generously, and deeply—and to reflect the results of their thinking to all the world with courage, directness, and power.

Selling cokes at ball games during the year was one of the many and varied jobs of the organization. This year honor society members sold chocolate milk during the noon hour.

Members are assigned to four groups: Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service. Group leaders this year were Jane Hinkle, Van Summers, Gary Wilson, and Eugene Jackson. Officers were Raymond McCutcheon, president; Van Summers, vice-president; Mary Sue Mason, secretary; and Ann Chapman, treasurer.

Two induction ceremonies are held each year. "Symphony of Opportunity" was the theme of the first initiation as six seniors were taken into the society.

"The American Dream" was the theme of the second program which saw twenty-one junior members initiated. Choral readings highlighted the program, while several songs were sung. A tea in honor of new members, parents, and faculty members was held in the cafeteria following the program.

Several awards are given each year by the society to those graduating seniors who have been outstanding in the fields of commerce, English, social studies, drama, music, mathematics, and science.

Mrs. Virginia Hickman replaced Mrs. Esther Golden as sponsor of the National Honor Society after Mrs. Golden's resignation. James Hinkle is co-sponsor.

All students must take the following pledge before becoming a member: "On my honor as a member of the National Honor Society I will do my best to represent the four ideals of the organization: Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service. I will be fair and square in all my dealings with teachers and fellow students; I will remember that the primary purpose of school is getting an education; I will use what powers of leadership I have toward making Nicholas County High School a better school. I will serve my school without thought of personal glory."

By Honor Society During School Year

Stepping in to "fill the shoes" of the outgoing seniors are 21 juniors. Seated: Martha Wallen, Benny Backus, Don Deitz, Jimmy Cox, Lynda Beale, Karen Adkins. Standing: Carolyn Wilde, Carol Frame, Becky Grose, Lynda McDowell, Ruth Grogg, Carol Drennen, Geraldine Sparks, Tiny Cogar, Belle Rader, Paula Taylor, Patty Backus, Nancy Rose, Ramona Frame, Shirley Wagner, Jolene Hughes.

Providing entertainment through many, many activities is the "travelinist" Gold and Blue Grizzly Band. Majorettes, Nancy Rose, Ramona Frame, Becky Walker, Carol Frame, head majorette; Priscilla Tinnil, Paula Taylor, Shirley Wagner. Second Row: Carolyn Wilde, Kelly Lett, Vanna Grimes, Jane Hinkle, Lynda McDowell, Jeanie Perkins, Sue Mason, Ann Chapman, Brenda Rogers, Patricia Cavendish, Janet Young, Sandra Walker, Margie Rife, Nila Rollins, Geraldine Sparks, Judy Mullins, Gloria Hughes, Norma O'Dell, Donna Huffman, Lynda Beale. Third Row: Lou Gill, Nancy Huffman, Karen Dotson, Becky Grose, Eddie Grose, Mary Jane McHenry, Benjamin Backus, Charlene Tyree, Gary Beale, Paul Cook, Marie Ogden, Patricia P'Simer, Sandra Given, Sue Roark, Pat Rollins, Marilyn Grose, Barbara

Band Presents Halftime Shows -

"Practice, practice," seems to be the keynote of success, or so it appears to the Gold and Blue Marching Hundred. Melodious strains do not come from just putting music on the stand; but from hard work and many practice sessions. Whatever the tempo may be, under the highly capable baton of Director Charles Nicosia, it emerges a masterpiece.

Sixteen seniors will remember a fun-packed, exciting year, along with its serious moments and events. Slogging through snow, rain, and sleet, the band had many practices during football season and the summer of '58. One of the highlights of the summer was a three-day trip to the state fair at Lewisburg where the band presented two concerts. Next came the county fair.

What would a football game be like without the band there to back the team? "Very well done," could be said about the various halftime shows presented by the band which attended all games but one. At the last game the Summersville band combined with the Richwood band to present their annual halftime show.

Winning fourth place in the State Forest Festival Parade at Elkins was a big thrill to the band members and Mr. Nicosia. This also won the band statewide recognition and people who had not heard of Summersville before were to become aware of it. At the W. V. U.-Richmond game, the majorettes performed their outstanding "pyramids." At the invitation of West Virginia State College the Marching Hundred presented a halftime show at the State-West Virginia Tech game at Institute.

Plus Various Musical Activities

As the band marched into another successful year, plans were made for the annual spring concert, banquet, and dance. The concert was given on April 17. Each year at the banquet medals and awards are presented to those students who have earned them during the year. Two outstanding first year students—a boy and a girl—are also presented awards at the banquet. The outstanding senior is also given his award for hard work during the year.

Some people may wonder . . . "Wonder who takes the director's place when he is absent." That is the job of the student director, who this year is Bette Ann Trent.

The band also participated in various other activities, including playing at basketball games, tournaments, and parades. Their peppy playing at pep rallies did much to help boost the spirit and morale of the school and team and to help lead the team on to victory.

A wide variety of music is played by the band. If it's rock 'n' roll you want, they have it; if it's ballads you want, they have it; if it's good serious music you want, they have it.

Four students, Lynda McDowell, Nila Rollins, Bette Trent, and Gary Wilson, attended "Operation Soundtrack" at West Virginia Institute of Technology at Montgomery on February 28. The purpose of "Soundtrack" was to record new music in stereophonic sound for the purpose of teaching new sounds to various other bands over the state. These students were selected from a list of ten.

Making signs and selling tickets for athletic events are two jobs of the 9-Club girls.

Upon graduation, a senior girl invites an acceptable sophomore to take her place and serve for two years. The organization is composed only of junior and senior girls.

Each year the 9-Club sponsors the sale of mums for the homecoming game. These girls also work in the concession stand.

Although the Club supports various other school activities, its primary purpose is to support athletic events.

Devoting much of her time in helping these girls with the work of the club, Mrs. Irene Skaggs, sponsor, seems never to tire of her task.

"This is a football," explains Mrs. Irene Skaggs, as if these nine girls had never seen one before. Joyce Grose, Tiny Cogar, Ruth Grogg, Carol Drennen, Jolene Hughes, Margie Champs, Betty Lue Snodgrass, Violet Sparks, and Lula Wiblin listen attentively to her.

Students Named For Sports-Minded Clubs

To those boys who lettered in a particular sport, served as manager, or as publicity manager, an opportunity is given through two "ghastly" initiations a year to become members of the N-Club.

Each year the senior members of the club, accompanied by their sponsors, travel to a sporting event within a 300 mile radius. Last spring the seniors visited Cincinnati, Ohio, for the weekend and saw the Redleg-Giant game.

Officers of the N-Club are Van Summers, president; Joe Kirker, vice-president; Walter Rogers, secretary; Jim Rogers, treasurer; and Nicky Nichols, sergeant-at-arms.

Coaches James Gladwell, Robert Perkins, and Bernard Poole are sponsors of the club.

"Just what is a flower made of?" This seems to be the object of discussion as these science club members examine some of nature's hidden beauty. Front Row: B. Russell, M. Sebert, H. Smith, B. Brown, S. Roark, R. Brick, M. Loving. Second Row: S. Worledge, K. Dotson, J. Frazer, V. Jessup, C. Drennen, T. Cogar, D. Huffman, N. O'Dell, J. Morrison, B. Young, K. Adkins, C. Perrine, N. Lunter, and P. Rollins.

Nature, Projects Interest 'Scientists'

Nature study and projects were the highlights of the year for the newly formed Science Club.

Each member must have completed a project this year. The projects were exhibited at the Science Fair on March 13. This is the first time in the school's history that a science fair has been given for students and adults. The club also entered projects in the Morris-Harvey Regional Science Fair this spring.

Officers of the club include Eugene Jackson, president; Van Summers, vice-president; June Skaggs, secretary; and Raymond McCutcheon, treasurer.

Mrs. Nancy Brown and E. K. Lett spend much of their time in sponsoring the Science Club.

It is hard for us to imagine what life would be like without flowers and many other things that nature and science has given us, these members seem to be thinking. First row: B. Snodgrass, V. Sparks, L. Gill, N. Huffman, S. Wagner, P. Taylor. Second row: Mrs. N. Brown, B. Rader, B. Young, D. Stevens, E. K. Lett, sponsor. Third row: J. Skaggs, M. Starcher, C. Matheny, G. Garrett, M. Brown, D. Grose, B. Rogers, B. Walker, B. Trent. Fourth row: T. Fyock, W. Rogers, J. Hinkle, E. Jackson, L. Young. Fifth row: G. Wilson, V. Summers, E. Bell, J. Kirker.

The Social Committee, composed of two members from each of the three upper classes, decides whether we should have a party, dance, or a picnic, or whether we should not.

Their job is to see that each social activity is properly chaperoned and a responsible clean-up committee is on hand after it is over.

Each member must have his name on the activity sheet and the sheet must be in the office at least two days prior to the social affair.

The Guidance Council chooses members at the end of their freshman year. Any student is eligible that maintains good grades and a good character.

They Entertain and Present Programs

Events for the activity calendar is only one of the many topics discussed by the assembly committee. Seated: Benny Backus, Sue Mason, Van Summers, Brooks Groves. Standing: Becky Grose; Mrs. Lucy Carroll, Mrs. Esther Golden, sponsors; Mary Ann Summers.

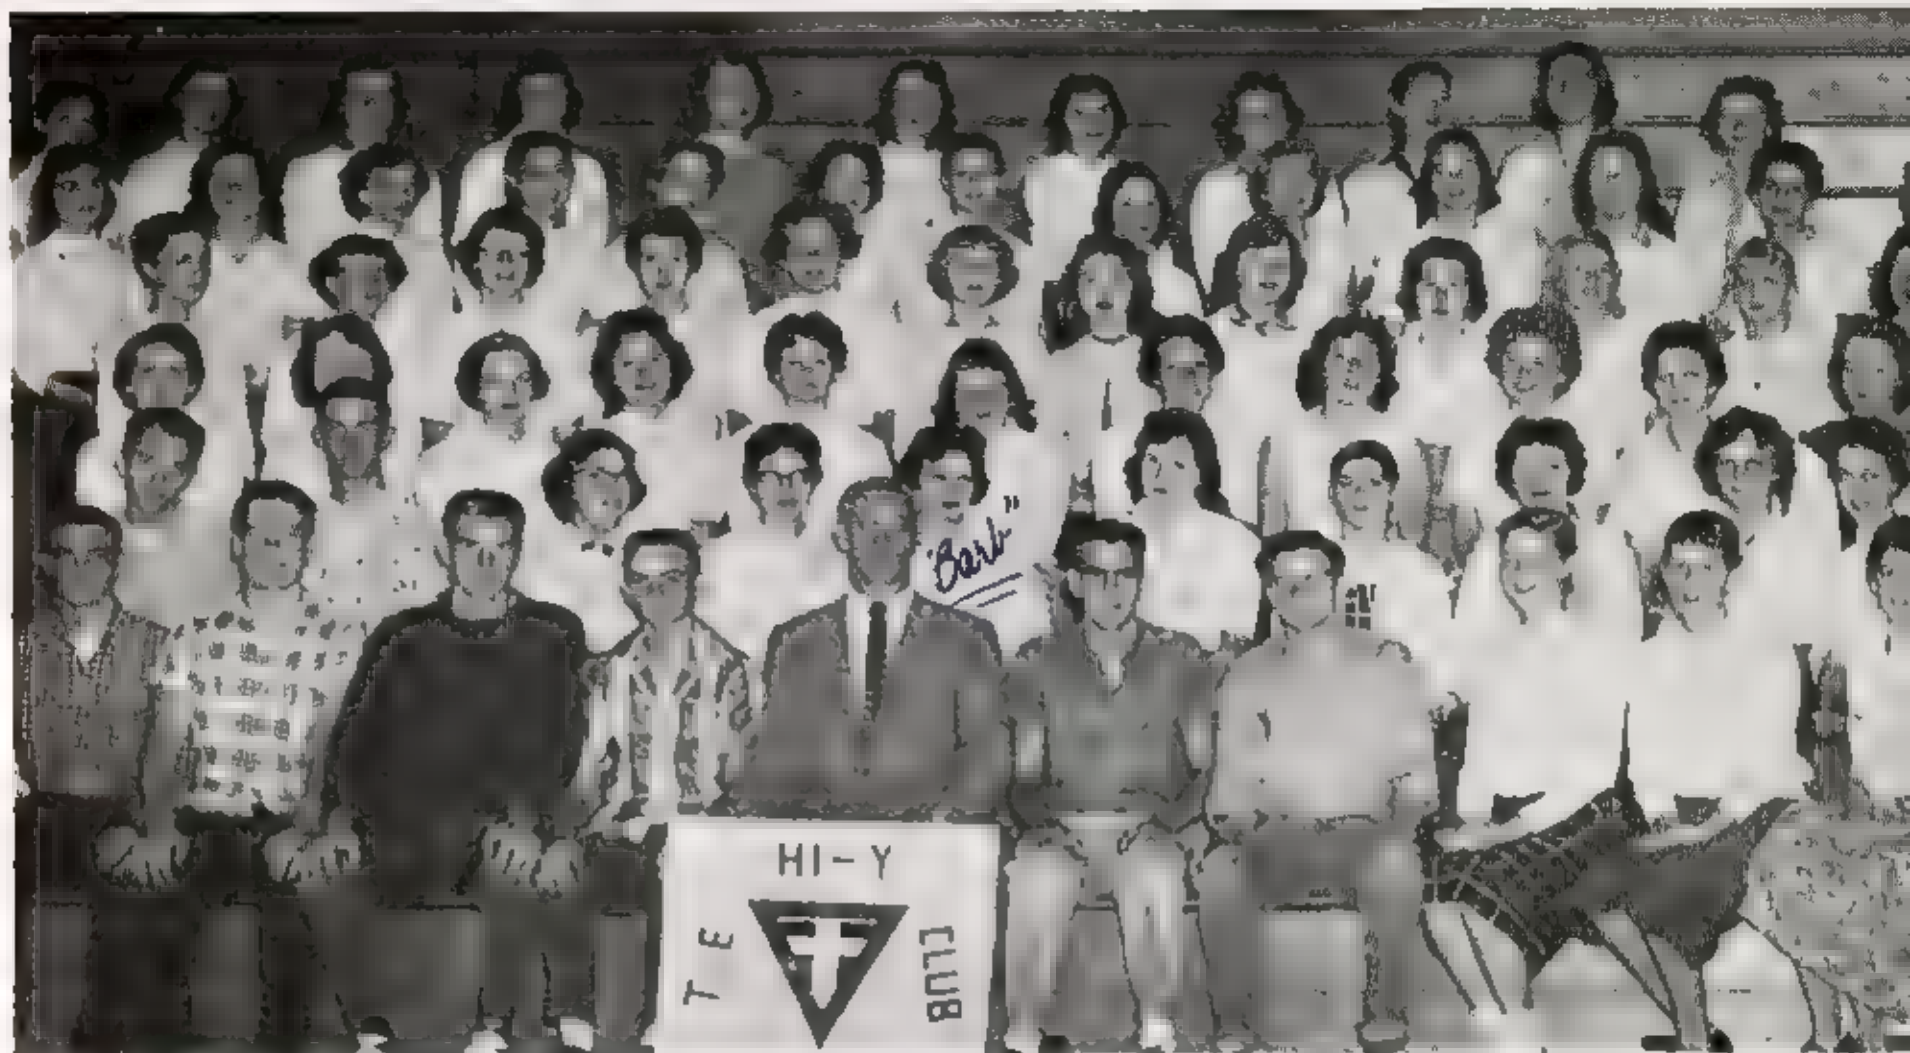

Six students constitute the assembly committee: two seniors, two juniors, and two sophomores. In May of each year two students from the freshman class are chosen by the Guidance Council for a period of three years.

These students are selected on a basis of leadership, personality, character, and scholastic achievement.

This committee works very hard to find outstanding programs, in the fields of entertainment and instruction for the students.

This worthwhile group is under the sponsorship of Mrs. Esther Golden and Mrs. Lucy Carroll.

To promote Christianity throughout the world is the theme of this group of boys and girls. First row: C. Foster, R. Jones, W. Rogers, D. Herold, D. Dotson, R. McCutcheon, G. Wilson, V. Grimes, M. ## A Better Understanding of Christ

Divided into two groups, the Y-Teens Club is one of the larger organizations on our campus. No one is barred admission—any girl may join. Mrs. Barbara Summers sponsors the junior-senior group and Miss June Beamer the freshman-sophomore group.

Purpose of this Christian organization is: "To build a fellowship of women and girls devoted to the task of realizing in our common life those ideals of personal and social living to which we are committed by our faith as Christians. In this endeavor we seek to understand Jesus, to share His love for all people and to grow in the knowledge and love of God."

Several worthwhile projects are carried out each year by the Y-Teens. This year at Christmas, all members collected canned goods and baskets were sent to many needy families in this area. A dance was also sponsored by the club.

Each and every group has to have its leaders. President of the junior-senior group is Lula Wiblin. Other officers are Margie Champe, secretary; Brenda Young, treasurer; Belle Rader, sergeant-at-arms.

C. Fisher, J. Frazer, J. Foster, K. Dotson, C. Keenan, H. Smith, L. Hurst, J. Legg, J. Murphy, D. Hamric, S. Hall, M. Ogden, L. Young, J. Justice, B. Rollins, M. Coffman, B. Hamilton, M. Wallen, C. ## Is Their Aim And Purpose In Life

Some Christians have said that to shut God out of one's life is to destroy its very foundation. But many people, who have no Christian faith or profession at all, feel something of the same thing.

Strictly a boy's organization, the Hi-Y club is concerned with the promotion of Christian fellowship. It tries to educate the boys to a better Christian life; to help them be better citizens of their community and country. The Hi-Y strives to create a better and more usual development of the mind, body, and spirit against a solid background for its members.

The club does much to promote fellowship among the boys and is similar in purpose to the Y-Teens, which is the Christian club for the girls. The good fellowship among the Hi-Y members helps to build good, successful character and personality; it helps them to know about the cultural, racial, and religious ideas of our society and to understand them better.

Sponsor of this group is Dexter Dotson. Officers are Gary Wilson, president; Dyer Herold, vice-president; Raymond McCutcheon, secretary-treasurer; Walter Rogers, chaplain.

"If the way to a man's heart is through his stomach," then the men should beware in a few years because many F. H. A. members shown here are learning that "knack." Kneeling: Doris Copenhaver, Emogene Chapman, Mary Keenan, Barbara Barnette, Carolyn Shaffer, Tootsie Willis, Brenda Hinkle, Elizabeth Keener, Carol Drennen, Brenda Lucas, Janet Hicks, Anna Belle Dobson, and Patty Underwood Standing: Sue Roark, Helen Stover, Jean Legg, Margie Rife, Helen White, Catherine Kincaid, Patty Painter, Bessie Rader, Sue Bennett, Phyllis Sparks, Geraldine Sparks, Barbara Knight, Vanra Grimes, Elizabeth Painter, Lou Withrow, Rose Ann Wiblin, Pat Trent, Phyllis Collins, Charlotte Donaldson, Helen Tyree, Carol Cool, and Carol Fisher.

Annual Tea Highlights Homemakers Year

"Help! help! lem'me go!" screams Lula Wiblin as senior members Anna Lee Shaffer, Mildred Starcher, Norma O'Dell, Meredith Richmond, Nora Bailes, Donna Hughes, Helen Rader, Diane Galeener, June Skaggs, June Foster, Donna Huffman, and Barbara Hicks try to push her off the bed.

The Future Homemakers of America is a national organization composed of senior high school students in the U. S. who plan to become homemakers after learning the essentials of homemaking.

"To promote a growing appreciation of the joys and satisfaction of homemaking" is the club's purpose. Red and white are the colors while the red rose is the flower. "Toward New Horizons" is the motto of this organization sponsored by Miss Hazel Dorsey and Mrs. Virginia Simms.

Rendering their services to the F. H. A. are these officers and senior members. First row: J. Hughes, J. Hinkle, S. Neil, R. Grogg, M. Champe, M. Summers, T. Cogger, and V. Sparks. Second row: Miss H. Dorsey, M. Painter, J. Murphy, M. Grose, M. Mason, A. Chapman, R. Painter, and Mrs. V. Simms. Third row: P. Rollins, T. McClung, J. Justice, B. Rollins, and B. Snodgrass.

Members Participate In Other Activities

To become an ideal homemaker is the goal of these members. First row: J. Grose, P. Ward, B. Taylor, M. Coffman, M. DeMoss, W. Schoolcraft, and K. Profit. Second row: L. McDowell, B. Grose, P. Backus, S. Snodgrass, B. Strader, P. Rohmiller, A. Coffman, M. Sebert, M. Fowler, S. Given, and S. Walker. Third row: A. Hurley, B. Walker, H. Robinson, R. Frame, M. Dodrill, L. Beale, B. Brown, E. Facemire, T. Pugh, L. Young, L. Gill, K. Adkins, and C. Frame.

Among the many activities sponsored by the F. H. A., the annual Mother-Daughter Tea held in the spring, and the Christmas Party held for a few underprivileged children, highlight the year.

Besides attending the annual regional meeting at Concord College, the club sends representatives to the summer F. H. A. Camps at Ripley and Jackson's Mill.

This active organization also sponsors parties, dances, roasts, and the members serve at various banquets.

Performing many useful deeds for their school are these Guidance Council members: Gary Wilson, Ruth Ann Grogg, Benny Backus, Dyer Herold, Lynda McDowell, Mrs. Gladys Vaught, Guidance director, Donald Deitz and Ann Chapman.

To Give Help Is Their Purpose, Goal

Did you ever wonder who went to all that trouble to give those vocational tests? Giving tests, scoring tests, filing requests for admits, filing and checking out vocational material to students, making profile sheets are only a few of the various jobs performed by the Guidance Council.

Each member works one hour every day with the counselor, Mrs. Gladys Vaught. They help to save her time and work so that she can administer her worthwhile services to the students.

Performing a valuable service to the school, this busy and active group is composed of four seniors and four juniors. Toward the end of each school year, two girls and two boys from the sophomore class are chosen by the council to take the place of the graduating seniors. Scholarship, character, dependability, and co-operation are some of the traits taken into consideration when selecting new members.

The student handbook is published by the Guidance Council. Articles on vocations, scholarships, apprenticeship training programs, and other helpful information appear in the school paper each month. Noon hour movies and many other projects are sponsored by the Guidance Council.

Two seniors, a boy and a girl, are chosen each year by the Guidance Council and the faculty, to receive the citizenship awards sponsored by this group. These seniors are chosen for their outstanding citizenship during their four years in high school.

The council assists with such guidance services as College Day, Career Day and Eighth Grade Visiting Day. Since the Assembly Committee and Social Committee are a part of the school's guidance services members for these committees are chosen by the Guidance Council with the approval of the faculty.

Chorus Makes 'Come-back' After 3 Years

For the first time in three years students showed interest, combined their voices, and joined the chorus, directed by Charles Nicosia.

At the beginning of the year the group consisted of 40 voices. After the first assembly much interest was aroused in the group, so at the beginning of the second semester, 17 new students joined the singers.

This year the Chorus has been singing popular songs as well as the "old familiars."

To open its season, the group sang at the Thespian Christmas assembly. Just recently they were featured in the Annual Spring Concert.

Last year, a group of seniors sang at the Commencement and Baccalaureate services; this year the chorus will be singing at both services.

Lynda Sims heads the group as president with Vanra Grimes, vice-president; Bette Trent, secretary and treasurer; Jim Thompson, sergeant-at-arms; and Violet Sparks, librarian. Vanra also serves as pianist.

"Here's a book for you to increase your knowledge," says Asst. Principal, Hoyt Dean as he hands the book to Eddie McMillion and Elsie Deal. Looking on are June Foster, Lula Wiblin, Carole Keenan, Margie Champé, Betty Snodgrass, Brenda Young, Violet Sparks, Joan Morrison, and Donna Huffman.

Future Teachers Learn Fundamentals

"Enjoying a day of teaching" are these members at the grade school: Nicky Nichols, Donna Hughes, Dianne Galeener, Priscilla Tinnil, Harriet Smith, and Ann Chapman.

Making the teaching profession more attractive to students who plan to enter that field is the purpose of the Future Teachers Club.

Members must show an aptitude for teaching, possess high morals, and strong character, and rate high in scholastic achievement.

Too often the public fails to realize the importance of a teacher. Remember—outstanding scientists first had to be taught.

"All work and no play" is not the motto of these F.T.A. members as they take a swing. Standing: Lynda McDowell, Geraldine Sparks, Ruth Grogg, Sandra Given, Bette Trent, Lynda Beale, Ramona Frame, Martha Wallen, and Becky Gross. Seated: Dorothy Brown, Sue Roark, Margaret Fowler, Nancy Rose, and Delane Hamric.

Of Teaching Profession For Future Use

"Ever too old to go back to the grade school and play on the jungle gym?" These F.T.A. members don't think so. First row: C. Wilde, P. Beckus, T. Cogar, C. Drennen, S. Wagner, M. Coffman, J. Skaggs, and T. Pugh. Second row: C. Frame, K. Shalap, N. Huffman, B. Rader, D. Dietz, P. Taylor, N. Moore, C. Bailey, S. Walker, and C. Tyree.

Representatives are sent from the local Future Teachers Club each year to the Future Teachers Conference at Jackson's Mill. This year the club had the honor of having their representative, Eddie McMillion, chosen on the West Virginia Executive Committee.

For each meeting the program committee invites different speakers who give inspiring and interesting talks to help the members become more familiar with the teaching profession.

Checking-out books, tedious filing, and proper arrangement of books are just a few duties of the assistants to Miss June Beamer, librarian. Learning these duties are Hazel Conard, Charlotte Perrine, Miss Beamer, Judy Murphy, Brenda Young, Delane Hamric. Seated: Cora Lea Shaver.

Library assistants are almost indispensable to the high school library. Many students are helped by these boys and girls who give their study halls to check books in and out.

They also keep the files in order, and give information as to where books and materials may be found. These assistants are chosen for their friendliness, courtesy, politeness, patience, honesty, and the attitude they take toward other classmates.

We Became Drivers; Library Assistants

Our students are becoming better drivers by taking the course taught by Mrs. Virginia Hickman. The safe driver must be ready at all times for the unexpected, just as a good ball player is always alert. Alertness, skill, timing, and the right habits, are taught to these students.

The practical training received in a driver education class helps not only the student but their parents also, because the insurance rates are reduced for a boy that has had formal training in "under the wheel" driving.

Under the wheel driving isn't being taught this year because the school could not get a car, but taking the classroom course will help a student later when he takes his driving test.

These students look over "the situation" in Driver's Ed. so they may obtain their license in the near future: Lanta Graham, Bonnie Hamon, Judy Murphy, Delane Hamric, Filamenio Dimeglio, Billy Bartley, and Herbert Groves.

"Acting is our business," so these members of the Thespians seem to imply. Standing: R. Hypes, M. Mason, Mrs. B. McMillion, Mrs. M. Neal, sponsors; J. Hinkle, T. Perrine. Seated: G. Sparks, P. Rohmiller, R. McCutcheon, V. Grimes, A. Chapman, E. McMillion, R. Jones, G. Wilson, D. Deitz, V. Summers, E. Deal, B. Grose, M. Wallen, G. Clay, L. McDowell, M. Starcher, D. Ayers.

Actors Make Use of Varied Talents

A Thespian must be a versatile person, since there are so many fields of activities in which he must become proficient. Aside from the pure drama of acting a part a Thespian must know something of the importance of the art of make-up. He must know the basic principles at least, and be able to apply them.

Designing and making costumes is a part of a Thespian's training. Acting, make-up, costume planning, stage management, play selections, stage settings, props, prompting, ticket sales, advertising, and musical accompaniments are among the many activities in which a Thespian must take part.

All these preparations in school theater work offer opportunities for self-expression and creative arts and activities. A Thespian must learn the art of careful planning and budgeting of his time in order to take an active part in the many activities of his club. Careful rehearsing, thorough knowledge of the spirit of the drama, and a forgetting of self in the portrayal of a part give the member poise, self-confidence, and assurance.

The Thespian colors are blue and gold. The motto of the club "Act well your part, there all the honors lie," becomes an integral part of the club member's life and serves as a guiding principle.

While a student may be permitted under certain conditions to earn his points in only one field of activity, the desirability of participating in many fields is stressed. All active members must have participated in at least one three-act play or two one-act plays and have the equivalent of at least seventy lines.

Eddie McMillion serves as president of the Thespians.

Three one-act plays were presented in the spring: "Sorry Wrong Number," "A Wedding," and "Darkest Hour." The play "Darkest Hour" was selected to go to Montgomery for the regional contest.

Guests are served at the noon hour tea for new members. Sue Mason and Becky Grose are seen serving Nancy Rose and Ramona Frame.

Membership is achieved in the Girls Athletic Association by earning 250 points in various sports. To remain a member one must earn 100 more points each semester. These points may be earned during study hall periods or at noon hour.

Sponsoring this worthy organization is Mrs. Marguerite Halstead. These athletic minded girls learn the value of keeping the body fit by daily exercises. A noon hour tea was held this year for new members.

GAA Girls Find Exercises, Basketball,

"Anyone for ping pong," says Nancy Huffman and Karen Adkins as Shirley Wagner, Linda Beale, Paula Taylor, Deanna Grose, Patty Painter, Brenda Rogers, Jeannean Murphy, Becky Walker, Nancy Rose have a gabfest.

As a part of the school's athletic program the G. A. A. gives members their chance to learn rules of many sports.

This organization is world wide. In it girls get the chance to learn how to get along with each other, and how to perform before people. They have winter sports as well as summer sports in which to participate.

Every club has its "Big Wheels" and the FFA is no exception. Kneeling: F. Murphy, M. Neil, D. Copenhaver, R. Copenhaver, and B. Harlow. Standing: B. Backus, D. Grose, H. Jarvis, D. Herold, F. Huffman, H. Martin, L. Skaggs, C. Tucker, and P. Strickland.

The annual Ham, Bacon, and Egg Show, and the Father and Son Banquet highlight the F. F. A.'ers year.

Undertaking the Community Improvement Project the club endeavored to do away with all hazards in the county and make it a safer place in which to live.

Representatives of the club attend the F.F.A. Federation Meeting in Raleigh County, and attend FFA Camp at Jackson's Mill and Ripley.

The club had the honor of having their sponsor, Carl Cook, chosen to represent the state association of Vocational Agriculture Teachers at the Southern States Annual Stockholders Meeting held in Richmond. The club also received a Soil Conservation Award from the Elk Soil Conservation District.

With the motto "The successful farmer of tomorrow is the Future Farmer of today" in mind the FFA boys strive to become the successful farmers of tomorrow.

The club furnishes valuable training for the boys. Learning the rules of parliamentary procedure is a "must" with them as they attend many meetings.

They learn handicraft and make beautiful and useful items. Most important they must learn the fundamentals of crop growing in order to become the most successful farmer.

"Brains and brawn" are essentials for these boys who help grow the food of our nation. Kneeling: W. Krantz, A. Dorsey, G. Graham, R. Graham, G. Thomas, R. Jarvis, J. Brake, and C. Halstead. Standing: F. Dix, D. Facemire, S. Grose, D. Jones, J. Deitz, L. Walton, J. Strickland, B. Malcolm, L. Chamberlain, G. Chapman, and L. Dillon.

Hungry Mouths Of A Growing Nation

Many and varied are the activities in which these FFA members participate. First row: A. Morrison, V. Hughart, D. Cook, D. Roberts, K. Stover, and D. Stull. Second row: B. Facemire, D. King, B. Coulter, K. Evans, and C. Hypes. Third row: J. Vickers, J. Young, M. McClung, and J. Childers.

Because we have developed physically as well as mentally, we have more vigorous minds, normal healthy bodies, and a keener appreciation of good sportsmanship whether we win or whether we lose.

Luckless Varsity Gridmen Compile

Spring sports at NCHS are not emphasized as much as fall and winter because of the weather. Sometimes there are none if the spring is late. In the case of an early spring, there is some track and baseball, and also a few intramural sports.

Baseball wise the Grizzlies posted a '58 season record of 7-4 while advancing to the sectional finals on a forfeiture by Richwood but dropping the finals to Webster Springs. George and Gene Ritchie were the "winningest" pitchers, downing two foes each.

Varsity, B-team, and Junior High football and basketball are stressed more than any other sports.

Season Record

Although the '58 season record of 3 wins and 7 losses did not reach the expectations of the coaches nor the team, the good spirit of the squad never ceased.

Joe Kirker led the Bear scoring with seven TD's and 2 PAT's for 44 points followed closely by Tom Carte's 36.

NCHS 47 — Cowen 0

Cowen fell before a spirited Grizzly team in the season's opener for both teams.

Tom Carte topped the scoring column with final quarter sprints of 55 and 70 yards and three PAT's.

In addition, Van Summers, Joe Kirker, and Jim Rogers pushed over Bear tallies.

NCHS 6 — Hinton 13

Taking to the road for the first time, Hinton edged the Bears in a well matched game with second and third period scores.

A five yard plunge by Tom Carte racked up the lone Grizzly tally.

NCHS 36 — Sutton 7

Still smarting from the Hinton defeat the Gladwellmen took Sutton apart piece by piece on three explosive runs by Joe Kirker, with Van Summers, Jim Rogers, and John Hamon all scampering over the goal line.

NCHS 12 — Gassaway 13

The high riding Grizzlies were nipped by the Elks in a heartbreaker during their fourth outing in the Homecoming game.

7 Loss, 3 Win Campaign Record.

Gassaway pushed over both scores in the second quarter while the Bears tallied in the second and fourth stanzas on runs by Van Summers and Joe Kirker.

NCHS 12 — Webster Springs 7

Under the guidance of Coach James Gladwell the Grizzlies ripped apart a rugged Wildcat squad on sprints by Joe Kirker and Nicky Nichols.

Both Bear scores were in the first quarter but the 'Cats came roaring back after intermission and almost tied the score.

NCHS 20 — Gauley Bridge 34

Undefeated Gauley Bridge handed the Grizzlies their third loss to even the record at 3-3.

The Bears led 13-7 at halftime on a dash by Tom Carte and a toss to John Lewis but the Travelers bounced back with one TD in the third period and two in the fourth.

NCHS 6 — Mt. Hope 32

A favored Mustang grid team swamped the underdog Bears with TDs in the first, third, and last periods.

Tom Carte cracked off right end for 57 yards and the Grizzlies' only score.

NCHS 0 — Fayetteville 41

The Fayetteville Pirates carried off the bounty of 41 points as they steamrolled their way over the Grizzlies.

Spangler and "All-State End" Larry Jasper scored four TD's between them in the first half with two more in the third period.

NCHS 12 — Ansted 13

Capitalizing on last quarter breaks the Grizzlies tallied twice to come within one point of Ansted.

Jim Rogers scooped up a fumble at midfield, scampering over for the first Bear score. Later the Grizzlies shook Tom Carte loose for a TD from the 20.

Both Highlander scores were in the second stanza.

NCHS 0 — Richwood 19

For the county championship, a fired-up Lumberjack eleven breezed past the Grizzlies.

Hicks scored one TD on a 12 yard scamper and another after intercepting a Nichol's pass. Lopez charged over for the third 'Jacks tally.

Gridders Skirmish

Tense action headlined a heartbreaking season for the Grizzlies. Although not as many games were won as they hoped would be, satisfaction comes not always in winning but in playing the game well as these action shots amply emphasize.

Top: Bill McIntire is knocked down by a Gauley Bridge B-team'er as referee James Gladwell toots his whistle. Right: Outdistancing the whole Sutton squad, Van Summers gallops down the gridiron.

Poolemen Win 1 Out of 3 In 'Off' Season

Last second touchdowns, missed PAT's, and upsets, all were part of the excitement of the '58 Jr. High grid season.

Due to a lack of Jr. High teams, Coach Bernard Poole was able to schedule only three games for the Cubs.

Clay smeared the locals 20-7 in their initial outing, but the Cubs got a measure of revenge when they dropped the Panthers 8-0 in the season finale. Joe Deitz smashed over for a 6 pointer in the win and later in the fourth quarter Bill Young trapped a Clay carrier in the end zone for the final two points.

Montgomery crushed the Grizzlies in their second game, 13-6, on the Pup's field.

Robert Richmond tackles a Clay player behind the goal line for a safety in the Jr. High's lone victory as Henry Legg and Buddy Asbury rush in to help. Right: Cheering the team on to victory are the Jr. High "yell gals" Judy Bailes, Jewell Morrison, Sue Brown, and Patty Backus, kneeling, who replaced Mary Keenan as a varsity cheerleader during the basketball season.

Hooking over an opponent's defense is Bear center, Jack Blankenship, as Tom Carte looks on in the background. Tom Carte grimaces as he leaps for a layup with two defenders blocking his way while Nicky Nichols, charges in to give support. After grabbing the ball from an opponent's grasp, senior guard, Nicky Nichols, races in for a layup as Joe Kirker stares in awe. Scrambling for rebounds are Van Summers and John Lewis as they attempt to edge out the Richwood'ers.

Jayvees Stomp 10 Foes In 17 Contests

"The object of basketball is to put the ball through the hoop," explains Coach Robert Perkins to the Grizzly Jayvees. Kneeling: Danny Van Camp. First row: Jimmy Grose, John Hamon, Okey Jackson, Brooks Groves. Second row: Douglas Dorsey, Jimmy Cox, Dale Dodrill, Eddie Lilly, Roger Copenhaver.

Outscoring 9 of their last 11 opponents the Jayvee hoopsters ended the season by winning 10 of 17 battles. Bernard Grose took the scoring honors for the locals, tallying 190 points in 16 games for an 11.9 average. Close behind was Bill McIntire with 139 in 14 games with an average of 9.9.

High Honors Bestowed Upon Students

Becoming valedictorian and salutatorian are the two highest honors which can be bestowed upon graduating seniors. The student with the highest average achieved during his four years of high school is named valedictorian while the person with the second highest average is the salutatorian.

Lynda McDowell and Donald Dietz get the dope on "Know Your State Government Day" from Van Summers down in the drug store. Van has to do all the telling because Judy Greaser, who attended with Van last year, is not enrolled here this year.

Margie Champs
Valedictorian

Betty Lou Snodgrass
Salutatorian

Having a snowball battle are these seniors who attended Boys' State and Girls' State last summer: Sue Mason, Van Summers, Gary Wilson, Priscille Tinnil.

During each school year, an outstanding boy and girl from the junior class is chosen to represent the student body at the "Know Your State Government Day." This is held at Charleston and high schools from the entire state are represented.

Two boys and two girls are also selected to attend Boys' State and Girls' State each year, which is held each summer preceeding their senior year of high school. This camp is held at Jackson's Mill.

Under the guidance of our efficient faculty and through the expert advice and counseling of our administrators, each year found us gaining more knowledge and assuming more responsibilities.

C. P. Wells

C. P. Wells
Principal

Sailing the ship as captains and guiding us into the right ports are Principal C. P. Wells; Assistant Principal Hoyt Dean and Guidance Director Mrs. Gladys Vaught.

Mr. Wells has an A. B. degree from West Liberty State Teachers College, has attended the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor and Bowling Green Business College. He received his M. A. Degree from the University of Pittsburgh. Before coming to NCHS he was principal of Reader High School, Romney High School and was superintendent of Webster County Schools.

Mr. Dean serves as assistant principal at the junior high and principal of the grade school. He received his A. B. Degree at Glenville State Teachers College and attended West Virginia University.

Guiding us into a career suited for us is the job of Mrs. Gladys Vaught. She received her A. B. degree from Marshall College and her M. A. from West Virginia University.

Miss J. Beamer

"Obedience" is the motto of Miss June Beamer, librarian. She received her B.S. and M.A. from West Virginia University, and has taught in McDowell, Webster, and Kanawha counties. She also sponsors the Y-Teens and junior class. Reading, cooking, and crocheting are her favorite hobbies.

Teaching science and mathematics at the red-brick building is Mrs. Loretta Bell. She has a B. S. degree from Glenville State Teachers College. Because of her husband's illness, Mrs. Grace Wells has substituted for her.

Biology and physical education are the subjects taught by Mrs. Nancy Brown who also sponsors the junior class and science club. She attended Agnes Scott College in Georgia, Beckley College, and has a B. S. P. E. degree from W. V. U.

Mrs. Lucy Carroll, senior class sponsor, is known for her floral arrangements and fabulous imagination. She has an A. B. from Glenville State Teachers College. She gets entertainment from interpretive readings.

Returning to his Alma Mater, but this time as a member of the faculty, is Joe Kent Carter. A graduate of Marshall College with a B. S. degree in Business Management, he teaches business practice, salesmanship, and commercial law. His hobbies are golf and tennis and is a bachelor.

Centering his interest in the junior class and the Future Farmers of America is Carl Cook. He also teaches classes in vocational agriculture. He holds a B. A. degree from West Virginia University and enjoys woodworking as a hobby.

Hobbies in homemaking, teaching home economics classes, and sponsoring the Future Homemakers of America, head a list of interests for Miss Hazel Dorsey. She was recipient of a B. A. degree from Marshall College.

"You take the bigger things of nature and I'll stick to the smaller things," Pat Trent might well be telling Paul Cook in this scene of a sophomore biology class. Others seen are James Losch and Brenda Rogers, and Deanna Grose.

Miss H. Dorsey

"Now, here's the ocean," points out Coach James Gladwell to Betty White, Geraldine Sparks, and Juanita Young who appear to be "know-it-alls" in American History.

D. Dotson

You will always be met with a friendly greeting and smile by Dexter Dotson. A freshman and Hi-Y sponsor, he received an A. B. degree from Glenville State College and teaches Algebra I and physical education.

A joke, a thermos bottle, and a yardstick—by this you will immediately recognize Festus Drennen, civics and world history teacher; freshman sponsor. He has an A. B. degree from W. Va. Tech and a M. A. from Marshall College.

"Tomorrow is the deadline" is a well known phrase of Mrs. Kathryn Drennen, advisor for the Gold and Blue Record and to the annual staff. She teaches Journalism I and II, world geography, and American government. She enjoys playing the piano and organ.

With golf and hunting as hobbies, James Gladwell is a true sportsman in every way. He coaches varsity athletics, and teaches history. He has an A. B. from Fairmont State and a M. S. from W. V. U. He sponsors the N-Club and sophomores.

Well noted for her church work is Mrs. Esther Golden, senior sponsor. She teaches English III and Bible. She received her A. B. and M. A. degrees from Fairmont State and New York University, and an honorary Doctor of Pedagogy from Morris Harvey College.

Mrs. Mavoreen Grimes, senior sponsor, teaches freshman English and civics; has an A. B. degree from Ohio Wesleyan and studied at the Universities of Kentucky and Miami. She enjoys working on needlepoint.

Commercial teacher for the first year here is Miss Virgie Groves. She is a former grade school teacher; attended Glenville and Marshall Colleges and has a B. S. degree from West Virginia Wesleyan and a M. A. from the University of Kentucky. Knitting and crocheting occupy her extra time.

F. Drennen

Mrs. K. Drennen

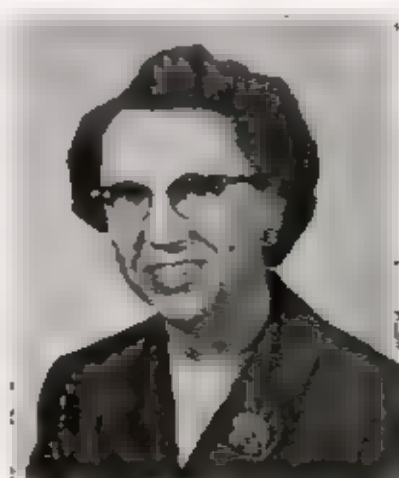

J. Gladwell

Mrs. E. Golden

Mrs. M. Grimes

Miss V. Groves

Mrs. M. Halstead

Mrs. Marguerite Halstead is director of all girl sports. She teaches physical education and the cheerleaders. She is a sophomore and G. A. A. sponsor, and has a B. S. degree from Concord College. She also is in charge of noon activities in the gym.

Teaching sociology, problems of democracy, drivers education and having charge of the National Honor Society keeps Mrs. Virginia Hickman busy, most of the time. She loves reading and painting and sponsors the sophomore class.

Coming here from Cowen High is James Hinkle, seventh and eighth grade science and biology teacher. He is co-sponsor of the National Honor Society with Mrs. Hickman. He is also attendance director of the high school and has a B. S. and M. S. degree from West Virginia University.

Another newcomer, E. K. Lett, has taken over the chemistry, science, and physics department. Sponsoring the senior class he has an A. B. degree from Marshall and attended West Virginia University. He was formerly a chemist at Peters Creek Coal Company.

"Always ready to do her part" well describes Mrs. Mattie Lett. She teaches seventh, eighth, and tenth grade English in the red brick building. Has an interest in dramatics and enjoys dancing.

Sewing, cooking, and reading takes care of the extra time of Mrs. Betty McMillion, new sophomore English teacher. She attended W. Va. Tech and formerly taught in Clay High School. Her husband, James, is an alumnus of N. C. H. S.

Mrs. Mary Neal came here from Cowen to teach sophomore and junior English and speech and to sponsor the junior class. She attended Glenville State College, W. V. U., and Davis and Elkins from which she has an A. B. degree. Mrs. Neal is a sister of Mrs. Lucy Carroll, senior sponsor.

Learning more about one of the most important subjects of our day, science, are these physics students: Nicky Nichols, Dale Beam, Roy Stout, Raymond McCutcheon, Van Summers, E. K. Lett, instructor; Lawrence Young, and Charlotte Perrine.

Mrs. M. Neal

"Children! children! the parts of an insect are not as complicated as you are making them," seems to be a common phrase of science teacher, James Hinkle, from the look on his face. Students are Phillip Branham, Naomi Moore and Roger Jarvis.

R. Perkins

Mrs. H. Pitsenberger

B. Poole

Mrs. V. Simms

Mrs. I. Skaggs

Mrs. M. Smits

C. Nicosia

A fabulous Gold and Blue Band is the work of Charles Nicosia. He received a B. S. degree from Concord College in music education and also attended Ohio University. His favorite food is chili.

Assistant coach, teaching physical education classes, and a civics class is Robert Perkins. He formerly taught at Rainelle High and Crichton High. He received his A. B. degree from Marshall College. He has two brothers, Jack and Gene, both grads of N. C. H. S.

Noted for her collection of earrings Mrs. Helen Pitsenberger, is a whiz with a typewriter. She teaches Typing I and II and holds a B. S. degree from W. Va. Tech. She really enjoys swimming.

Coach of junior high athletics and four general science classes keeps Bernard Poole, who loves coffee, busy. He has an A. B. from Glenville, an M. A. from W. V. U.—is also a junior and N-Club sponsor.

Instructor of homemaking, biology, and science is Mrs. Virginia Simms. She is an F. H. A. and sophomore sponsor; studied at W. Va. Tech, Morris Harvey, Marshall, University of Tennessee and has an A. B. degree. She is the mother of three children.

"A great sense of humor and a lot of patience" well describes Mrs. Irene Skaggs, senior English teacher. She holds an A. B. degree from Glenville State and a M. A. from George Peabody College and also studied at W. V. U. Is a freshman and 9-Club sponsor.

Mrs. Myrtle Smits, ninth grade math teacher, is a graduate of Olivet College in Illinois with a B. S. degree. She is a sophomore sponsor and a very active leader in the church. She has taught in grade school and her hobbies are handi-crafts, paintings, and ceramics.

Mrs. A. Strickland

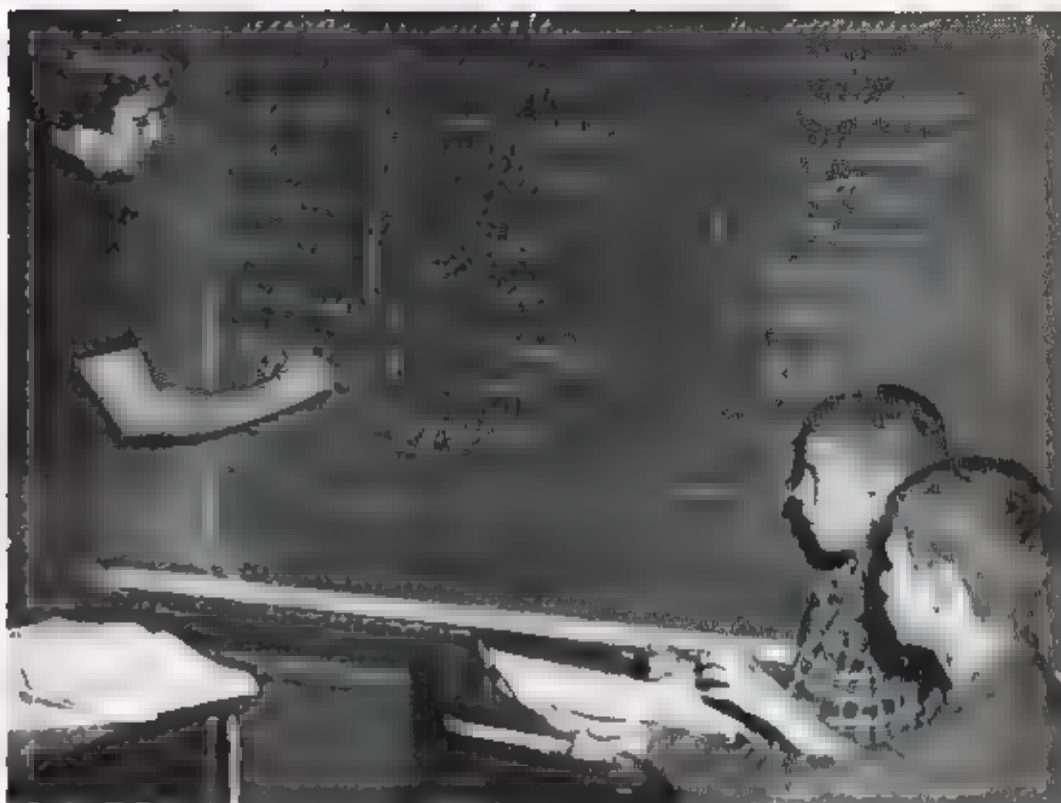

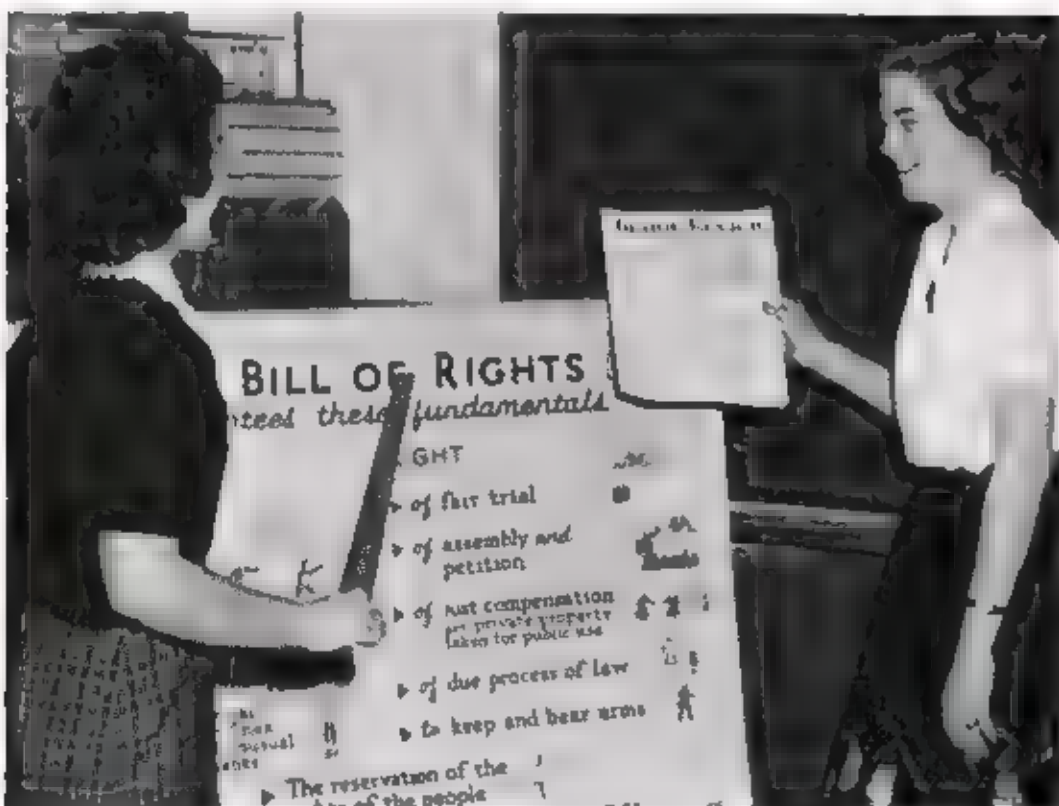

Teacher of geography, history, and civics is Mrs. Alice Strickland, seventh grade sponsor, who enjoys working with youth. She received an A. B. and M. A. degrees from Glenville and Marshall College.

An asset to the field of mathematics is Mrs. Rotha Strickland, teacher of solid geometry, plane geometry, Algebra II; is freshman and Future Teacher Club sponsor. She has her A. B. and M. S. degrees from the University of Oklahoma.

Traveling with her family is the favorite hobby of Mrs. Barbara Summers, American history teacher. She is Y-Teen and freshman sponsor and graduated from West Virginia Tech with a B. A. degree.

Mrs. Arletta Dalton replaced Mrs. Barbara Strickland in October as secretary. Included among her duties are typing, filing, and bookkeeping. Mrs. Dalton is no stranger here since she is a '57 graduate.

"The Bill of Rights are the first ten amendments to the Constitution," instructs Mary Jane Painter to Festus Drennen's civics class as Patty P'Simer assists.

"Spelling and word meanings are just one more important and complicated part of the English language," Mrs. Mattie Lett is explaining to two members of her seventh grade English class: Larry Hicks and Jimmy McHenry.

High School Days Hold Many Memories

As graduation nears and we spend our last few weeks at NCHS, let us pause and remember some of the highlights of our high school days.

Entering in September, 1955, two hundred sixty-eight strong, the largest class ever, we were just a little frightened, thinking that each step we made might lead in the wrong direction. With such a large group every one was certainly surprised at "us greenhorns" when we elected a girl, Carole Keenan, to lead us as president. We were, oh! so proud of our princess, Susie Lyons, who represented us at homecoming.

Smaller in quantity but high in quality we entered our sophomore year. This year we elected Nicky Nichols to head our class, and again Susie Lyons represented us at homecoming.

As we began our junior year with Nicky again at the stern many of our thoughts centered around our prom and the Christmas Party. This year Priscilla Tinnil, proudly, became our Maid-of-Honor at homecoming. Joe Kirker and Susan Hall were honored in being chosen Mr. and Miss Christmas, while Mary Sue Mason and Eddie McMillion reigned at the prom as Mr. and Miss Junior.

"Only the fittest survive" seems to be the adage as only 165 returned as seniors. Our faces glowed with thoughts of graduation and saddened with the realization we would soon be saying good-bye. Now it was our turn to elect the reigning queen at homecoming. She was Diane Galeener, a very lovely representative. This year Van Summers became our senior president.

Though we sometimes griped and fussed, most of our high school days were happy, eventful ones. This year, we are passing another milestone and a very important one indeed. The joys, sorrows, friendships, and most of all, the knowledge gained here, will influence us throughout our lives.

The businessmen of this and the neighboring communities have been most generous with their advertising. Through their generosity and help with our finances our annual was made possible.

Building a Reputation . . .

. . . a reputation for integrity, for quality, and for service . . .

Yes, we want to build a good reputation for ourselves and for those who entrust their printing work to us . . . for we realize that their reputation is also partly built upon the quality of the printed pieces that they send out.

YOU'LL FIND OUR PLEDGE:

''to Serve You Better''

is our determination to continue — to the best of our ability — those factors which have built our reputation and made us the largest printing establishment, devoted entirely to commercial and industrial printing, in Southern West Virginia.

If you are already one of our customers, then we invite you to give us an opportunity to handle your next printing requirement.

Best of Luck
Barbara Ann Brown (Nancy)

Best wishes
Vergie Groves

Good Luck to you in all that you do
a friend
"Kathy"
HP

Wishing you lots
of luck in the future.
Carol Neff

So nice to have you in English and Speech. You did a nice job in the Junior Play. Mary M. Neal.

I thought you didn't have time
for anything else.

K. Brennan

Sweetheart

May you have the best of luck and happiness always
Dorothy Mullins
(1945-69)

Of my dearest uncle
the best of luck
"Bucky"

Bucky.
Remember those wild cracks in English class.
Norma Ruth

Love with laughter

To a guy I would never forget.
A friend always
Mary Brown

Bucky
Set you a '54 Ford.
Nancy B. Brown

Bucky!
You're a real nice guy!

Bucky I'll
always remember the good times
we've had in English and Am. Hist.
I hope you always have the best of Luck...

A friend
Carol Sue Foster
